Mysterious Murder of an Engineer.

ORIZABA TO BE BROKEN UP.

Bartlett's Brother Resigns as Private Secretary—"Dr." Joseph Acquitted.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Herald.

SAN BERNARDINO, March 30.—Last night about 7 o'clock a man named Jervis, an engineer on the California Southern railroad, running between this city and Colton, was called to the door of his residence in this city by a carpenter named Ed. Colman and deliberately shot down with a Winchester rifle, the ball passing through the fleshy part of the arm and then through the body. Colman gave himself up at once to the Sheriff. Jervis refused to make a statement, and died about 12 o'clock, five hours after the shooting. The matter is shrouded in mystery, as both are spoken of as quiet men.

There appears to be no motive for the crime other than jealousy, and even for that there seems to have been no apparent cause. The murdered man had just prepared a home for his wife and son, who will arrive in this city tonight from Clinton, Mo. There is considerable indignation on the streets about the crime, and threats are made that lynch law will be resorted to, though the officers are hopeful that there is no cause for alarm, and that the law will take its course. Colman is charged with the shooting as accidental.

TO BE BROKEN UP.

An Old Favorite Steamer That Outlived Her Usefulness.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—The steamer Orizaba, so well known to old travelers on this coast, is now lying at Broadway wharf, where her owners will break her up, she having outlived her usefulness.

Bartlett's Brother Resigns.

SACRAMENTO, March 30.—Columbus Bartlett, private secretary to Governor Bartlett, has tendered his resignation and will leave for San Francisco as soon as his brother returns from his visit to Northern California, where, with the Board of Trustees, he is looking for a site for the new Normal school. Mr. Bartlett, it is stated, will resume his practice of law. Governor Bartlett has not in any way indicated his choice to fill the position vacated by his brother's resignation.

ACQUITTED.

Dr. J. H. Josselyn Escapes Being Convicted of Malpractice.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Dr. J. H. Josselyn, charged with having caused the death of the young actress, Sarah Ladd Lawson, through criminal malpractice, was acquitted of the charge to-day by a jury. The ante mortem statement of the deceased, accusing the defendant of malpractice, was not allowed evidence on the ground that when she made the statement the deceased believed that she would recover. It was consequently not admissible as a dying declaration. The court instructed the jury to render a verdict of not guilty, which they did without leaving their seats.

The Palmyra Hotel to be Opened.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE HERALD. ORANGE, March 30.—Chief Engineer Terra, of the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe system, passed through Orange yesterday on an inspection tour of the recent surveys made by his corps of engineers. It is reliably reported that upon completion of the San Bernardino and Los Angeles road into Los Angeles the whole construction force of that road, consisting of 500 men, will be immediately transferred to Orange and Burrell Point. The work will be pushed ahead at the rate of half a mile a day.

The Palmyra Hotel, elegantly constructed and beautifully appointed, and exclusively for Eastern tourists, will shortly be thrown open to the public.

Could Not be Held for Want of Proof.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—Captain W. S. Walker, of the steamer Belgic, was examined to-day by United States Commissioner Sawyer on the charge of allowing a Chinaman named Ah You to enter the country contrary to the provisions of the restriction laws. The Commissioner ruled that Captain Walker could not be held unless the government could show that he was present and aided or allowed the deserter to get away from the ship. The District Attorney was not able to prove this, so the Captain was discharged.

The New Lugonia Bank.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—The Board of Bank Commissioners to-day issued a license to the Bank of East San Bernardino valley, at Lugonia, San Bernardino county, to commence business on April 4, 1887. The authorized capital is $50,000, the subscribed capital $50,000, and the capital paid in coin $20,000. The officers are as follows: President, F. F. Morrison; Vice-President, A. L. Park; Cashier, John W. Wilson. Directors—Geo. A. Cook, Geo. H. Crafts, A. L. Park, Geo. E. Otis and F. F. Morrison.

Fire Bugs Sentenced to the Penitentiary.

PORTLAND, Oreg., March 30.—R. A. Byrnes and Ellis Roberts, who burned W. S. Ladd's barn last July, were sentenced to-day. Byrnes was sent to the penitentiary for five years for arson, and for breaking into Wm. Beck's house got three years more. Roberts was sentenced to six years for arson. Both men belonged to the International, and were selected by lot to commit arson and burglary. Byrnes confessed his guilt, but Roberts stood his trial and protested his innocence, even when sentenced.

A Fatal Buggy Accident.

SAN JOSE, March 30.—Miss Mary Lowe, the daughter of ex-Senator James R. Lowe, and Miss Carrie Frost, while out riding this morning, were thrown from a buggy. Miss Lowe's skull was fractured, and she died in a short time. Miss Frost is in a critical condition.

INTERSTATE COMMISSIONERS.

Not Prepared to Interpret Any Provisions of the Law.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The Interstate Commerce Commissioners, except Bragg, are in the city to-night. Colonel Morrison has been here since the adjournment of Congress, and Walker arrived during the day, while later trains brought Judge Cooley and Schoonmaker. General Bragg is expected to-morrow morning or to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, in accordance with the suggestions of the President, conveyed by letter to each of the Commissioners. The latter will assemble in the office of the Secretary of the Interior, receive their commissions and be sworn into office. Some of the Commissioners expressed doubts as to their right to take any official action whatever prior to April 5th, when the official life of the commission begins. The probabilities are, therefore, that to-morrow's meeting will be one for consultation only. The members of the commission said nothing about the various questions which have arisen regarding the proper interpretation to be given to the disputed provisions of the law. Judge Cooley unofficially expressed the opinion that it will be impossible to interpret the law until cases necessitating an interpretation shall come up in practice, and he thought it would be best for the Commission to take up in order the questions as they may arise, and determine what interpretation shall be given the provisions applicable to each case.

ALEXANDER-CROCKER.

Particulars About the Coming Ceremony in San Francisco.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The Crocker and the Alexander families left this city at 9:15 P. M. yesterday, in the private car of Charles Crocker, bound for San Francisco to attend the wedding of Miss Harriet V. Crocker and Charles B. Alexander. The company of the car were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crocker, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Alexander, Miss Crocker, Charles B. Alexander, Miss Grace Green, and Henry A. Alexander, the best man, to whom Miss Green is engaged. The marriage will take place in San Francisco, at noon, April 26. There will be no bridesmaids but eight ushers, all of San Francisco. The bride's trousseau is from Worth and was brought to this city by Mrs. White. On their return to this city Mr. and Mrs. Alexander will reside at No. 4, West Fifty-Eighth street. Owing to the recent death of Mrs. C. Crocker, of San Francisco, no invitations will be issued. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander will go to Europe.

DARING OUTRAGE.

An Express Messenger Shot by Robbers on a Train.

UTICA, N. Y., March 30.—"Telegraph Hunt at Utica I have been shot and robbed." These were the words uttered by Express Messenger Lake, running on Train 6 on the West Shore road, which arrived in Utica at 11:16 to-night, when he was found lying in his car bleeding freely from a wound in his shoulder. While the train was making the run between Clark's Mills and this city, which only occupies seven minutes, a party of men boarded it between the baggage and express cars, shot the messenger and attempted robbery, but with what result or how severely the man is injured could not be learned, as a stop of only three minutes was made here and all was confusion when the train reached Frankfort, nine miles east of here. Lake was attended by physicians. The would-be robbers escaped, but it is believed that they secured no plunder.

FOR DISABLED VOLUNTEERS.

The Home Will be Located Near Los Angeles or Napa.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—It is announced that a meeting of the managers of the national home for disabled volunteer soldiers will be held in New York City on April 19th next to discuss the question of the location of a branch of the home, as authorized by the last Congress. It is to be established and maintained at some point west of the Rocky mountains. It seems to be practically settled that the home will be located in California, either near Los Angeles or in the Napa valley, north of San Francisco.

A Proposed Ordnance Foundry.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Secretary Whitney is considering the plans submitted by the board appointed to ascertain the amount of plant required to equip the Washington navy yard as an ordnance foundry. He has been in consultation with the ordnance officers and it is probable that the plans ultimately decided upon will be made public in a short time. It is believed that two years' time will be necessary for the completion of plant large enough to turn out heavy calibers of steel ordnance, but meanwhile the foundry will be able to handle material for guns not exceeding six inches in calibre.

Postoffice at Earlimart.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—A postoffice has been established at Earlimart, Los Angeles county, California, with O. R. Banning as Postmaster. Lucy Miller and John Oliver have been commissioned postmasters respectively at Mariposa and Panoche.

A Reserve Agent.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The Comptroller of the Currency has approved the Merchants' National Bank, of Chicago, as a reserve agent for the First National Bank of Fresno, and the National Bank of Kansas City as a reserve agent for the First National Bank of Los Angeles.

Four People Burned Badly.

MADERA, Cal., March 30.—The house of B. W. Martin, near Borden, was burned about 4 o'clock P. M. yesterday. His two children were burned badly. The youngest, 3 years old, will probably die. The fire originated from the bursting of a lamp in an incubator. The mother and sister-in-law were both burned about the hands in saving the children. The house and everything in it was lost.

A Noted Case to be Re-Tried.

MERCED, Cal., March 30.—The noted case of Breckenridge against Crocker was called up in the Superior Court yesterday. The first trial resulted in a verdict of $90,000 damages being awarded to Breckenridge. A new trial was granted, to which an order of appeal was taken to the Supreme Court and affirmed by that tribunal. The Court ordered the new trial set for April 11th, 1887.

EASTERN.

Decrease of the Public Debt.

A MEASURE AGAINST SCALPERS.

The Chicago Democrats Unable to Agree upon a Candidate for Mayor.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Herald.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—It is estimated by the Treasury Department that there has been a decrease of about $12,000,000 in the public debt during the present month. The receipts so far this month amount to $33,235,293 and the expenditures to $18,969,550, including $8,735,219 pension payments. The net gain of receipts over expenditures is $14,866,743. Pending the selection and preparation of permanent offices for the use of the Interstate Commerce commission, temporary quarters have been secured with the United States Geological Survey, in the Ohio building. In response to a request from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Assistant Attorney-General Montgomery to-day rendered an opinion upon the construction to be placed upon certain sections of the Indian Lands Severalties act, passed last session of Congress, in which he holds that the Indians who have heretofore received an allotment of less quantity of land than is provided for in the said act, are entitled to receive an additional allotment, sufficient to make the entire quantity allotted to them under the act. The opinion also holds that the work of making the allotment may be either by a special or by the regular agent, without the concurrence of another.

ROUGH ON SCALPERS.

Railroad Companies Determine to Pay No More to Commissioners.

NEW YORK, March 30.—The Joint Executive Committee of the Trunk Lines and Central Traffic Association held an important meeting at Commissioner Fink's office in this city to-day, at which the end sought consists of nothing less than the complete abolishment of commissions. This decision was reached unanimously, and by such a large number of lines that it is believed that it will prove more effective than any of the previous attempts in the same direction, which were put into force only on the trunk lines. This abuse, which began more than thirty-five years ago, has grown to such enormous proportions that it is estimated it is now costing the railways of the United States directly and indirectly more than $5,000,000 annually, and to a great extent it has been the means by which the ticket scalpers have been built up. The importance of this movement may be estimated when it is understood that the various associations agreeing to abolish ticket commissions comprise the Central Traffic Association, composed of all important lines east of Chicago and St. Louis and west of the western termini of the trunk lines, the territory of which includes all the lines between Buffalo, Salamanca and Wheeling on the west and New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore on the east; the Southern Passenger Association, which comprises all important lines east of the Mississippi and south of the Ohio river; the Potomac New England Association, comprising all important railway lines in New England. The agreement is made binding by another clause, providing that neither of the agreeing companies will act as agent for connecting lines who continue to pay their agents commissions.

CHICAGO DEMOCRATS.

Unable to Find a Satisfactory Candidate for the Mayoralty.

CHICAGO, March 30.—The Democratic party of Chicago is still without a candidate for Mayor and the leaders are again looking to Carter Harrison, notwithstanding that he has twice accepted and twice declined the nomination. The nominating committee of fifty, appointed by the second Democratic convention, met this evening and held two lengthy sessions. At first, after Dewitt C. Greig and John King, members of the committee, had declined the proffer of the chief place on the ticket, Congressman Frank Lawler started a new boom for Harrison. As the latter was not present and no one was authorized to speak for him, no action was taken on Lawler's proposal. John H. McAvoy, a wealthy brewer, who was present, as one of the committee of fifty was urged to accept. He did not accept outright and the committee took it for granted that he would accept, notwithstanding his protestations that he did not want the office. A recess was taken, and in the meantime McAvoy held a consultation with Mayor Harrison, at which the latter assured him of his heartfelt support. McAvoy after much hesitation wrote a letter declining, giving as a reason that his business engagements would not permit him to accept. When the letter was read to the committee President Kern, of the Cook county Democracy advocated adjournment sine die, leaving the Republican and United Labor party tickets the only ones in the field. Congressman Lawler protested vigorously and again challenged Carter Harrison. Lawyer Harry Rubins followed in the same vein and then moved the appointment of a committee of five to hunt a candidate. The motion was carried with a whoop. To-morrow evening the committee will report the result of its search.

New Designs of Postage Stamps.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—The Post-Office Department officials are having prepared a series of new designs of embossed stamps for stamped envelopes of one, two, four and five-cent denominations. The head of Franklin has been selected for the one-cent stamp, and the heads of Washington, Jackson and Grant for the two, four and five-cent denominations, respectively. The general design of the new series is uniform on the upper side, and following the oval shape of the stamp is the legend: "United States Postage," instead of "U. S. Postage" as on the stamps now in use. This new series will be ready for issue about May 1st. The border of the one-cent adhesive stamp has been slightly modified to conform to the design of the two-cent stamp.

THE VOODOO.

A Family Fatally Poisoned by a Colored Doctor.

MACON, Ga., March 30.—Six out of eleven persons, who were poisoned by the Voodoo doctor, Bonner, in Baldwin county, are now dead, and the five still living will die this week. The sixth death was that of Father John Harris. He openly expressed doubt as to the powers possessed by the Voodoo, whereupon the latter proposed that for this want of faith not one of the Harris should live the month through. The father alone, who had not eaten much of the fatal meal, recovered sufficiently to move, but when he recovered he was a raving maniac, had to be confined in a lunatic asylum, and he had fearful visions, and would not eat for fear of being poisoned. He soon died in terrible convulsions. News from the settlement is that the survivors cannot live much longer, so that it is likely that the Voodoo's prophecy will be fulfilled and that not one of the family will live to see the new moon come in. As soon as the white folks learned of the facts Bonner was hidden by the colored people and has not yet been found.

A COAL GAS EXPLOSION.

Two Miners Hurt and Killed in a Pennsylvania Mine.

SCRANTON, Pa., March 30.—An explosion of gas occurred in the new Starch mine of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company this morning. The fire boss, Littlejohn Lewis, with Thomas Lewis and Edward Owens, miners, entered the mine and detected gas. The fire boss left the miners and retraced his steps, going toward the entrance. On the way he was struck by a falling rock, and the explosion occurred. The force of the explosion was terrific. Every door of fifty was torn from its fastenings and sent crashing against the walls of the mine. The miners were carried off their feet, hurled into ditches and blown against pillars. The fire boss, Littlejohn, and a miner named James Morgan were hurled into what is known as the dump, a spot in which the water from the level accumulates. Three doors were also thrown into the dump. An effort was at once made to rescue Lewis and Owens, the miners who had gone into the mine with the fire boss, but afterwards prevented it. This afternoon their mutilated bodies were found and conveyed to their homes.

THE WHITE PLUMED JIM.

The Object of Little Hand-Shaking Operation at Terre Haute.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 30.—The Vandalla train to which Mr. Blaine's private car was attached arrived here at 3:35, one hour and twenty-two minutes late. No effort had been made to give Blaine a reception, yet there were four or five hundred people at the depot. The crowd surrounded Blaine's car and began to call "Blaine." Blaine appeared at the rear end of the car, and was received with cheers. He said: "Gentlemen, it gives me pleasure to see you all here. I am on an entirely private journey, and I simply desire to thank you for the courtesy of this call." Afterwards Mr. Blaine stepped from the car and was immediately surrounded and compelled, on account of the rush, to climb back on to the steps again. The train remained at the depot fifteen minutes, during which time Mr. Blaine was occupied in shaking hands.

DEATH OF AN OUTLAW.

His Lifeless Body Brought In For the Reward.

SANTA FE, March 30.—It was reported here last night that Marino Leyva, a notorious outlaw and desperado, and leader of a gang who terrorized Central New Mexico for six months, had been killed while resisting arrest near Antelope Springs, seventy miles south of here. The report was confirmed to-day by the arrival of Joaquin Montero and Carlos Jacinto with the body. A reward of $1200 was offered for Leyva; his death will break up the gang. A great many people visited the Santa Fe jail to-day and viewed the body. The people in Southern New Mexico are greatly pleased over the death of the outlaw, and are thoroughly organized for the suppression of the rest of the band.

The Union Pacific Election.

BOSTON, March 30.—At the annual meeting of the Union Pacific Railway Company this morning the old board of directors was re-elected, with the exception of M. L. Spaulding substituted for John P. Spaulding. A resolution was adopted instructing the president and directors to formulate and submit to the government a plan for settling the subsidy and funding the same for such periods, rates and interest and under such terms as to be additional security for the gradual repayment of the principal as will in their judgment be wise and just to the company and to the government.

The surviving soldier declares himself able to identify the assassins.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 30.—A wholesale merchant of St. Petersburg, reputed to be worth millions, has been shot and killed by a man to whom he refused to give 80,000 rubles towards the Nihilist fund. The murderer has been arrested. Other Russian capitalists are afraid of suffering a similar fate. They are receiving letters threatening them with immediate death if they do not comply with demands to furnish money for the "common cause."

COMPLAINING TARIFF.

They Attribute the Defeat of the Danubian to Her Owner.

LONDON, March 30.—A dispatch to the Sportsman from Queenstown says that Captain Samuel, of the yacht Dauntless, attributes his defeat by the Cornely. Prior interference of Mr. Collyer, owner of the Dauntless, who was on board the vessel, Captain Samuel and five of the crew have left the Dauntless and will sail for New York to-morrow.

WHERE IS THE MONEY?

Stockholders of the Horn Silver Mine Concerned About $250,000.

NEW YORK, March 30.—Financial circles are exercised over the report that $250,000 of the funds of the Horn Silver Mining Company, in which A. R. Culver and Allen C. Washington are interested, have disappeared. The story runs that they are hunting up stockholders, who are being hunted up by the company, and that they are claiming the money on the ground that the company, who, it is claimed, can explain the matter, has not yet returned from Europe. Mr. Culver said that the mine, which is in Southern Utah, has declared dividends of some $200,000 or more, but about two years ago ceased paying dividends. Reports from the company were that the factory, and some of the principal stockholders want some light let in on the management of the mine.

A SERIOUS FIRE.

Over 700 Shoe Manufacturers Thrown Out of Employment.

The insurance on the stock is $95,000, and the machinery, $140,000, and on the building, $20,000. By this fire 725 employes are thrown out of employment.

PORTLAND, Oreg., March 30.—The Stock Exchange and Mining Board organized this evening. The number of members is limited to twenty-five, all subscribed at $250 each. C. H. Prescott was elected president, Bernard Goldsmith vice-president, Jonathan Bourne, Jr., chairman, J. T. Ryan, secretary, and J. F. Watson treasurer. The constitution and bylaws are essentially the same as those of the San Francisco Stock Exchange Board. The association expects to begin business in about three weeks.

Damages Against the City Railway Company.

The jury in the case of S. F. and Mary A. Anderson vs. the City Railway Company, after being out an hour, brought in a verdict for plaintiffs in the sum of $4583.37. The jury was composed of Messrs. William Ligon, W. H. Carey, J. Baldwin, J. A. Sherman, P. McAnary, J. Schilling, J. A. Ballis, M. H. Billinger, A. Merriam, William F. Turner, William H. Walker and R. Wilkins. A stay of execution was granted defendants for thirty days. This suit was brought to recover $10,000 damages for injuries to Mrs. Anderson on the 6th of June, 1886. Plaintiffs alleged that on that day Mrs. Anderson was riding on a street-car and signaled the driver to stop, which he did on North Main street. Mrs. Anderson then started to alight, but as another car was passing on the other track, she waited. Just as she stepped off, the car she was on started, throwing her to the ground on her back, straining her spine and otherwise injuring her.

Lugonia Auction Sale.

The auction sale at Lugonia by the Los Angeles Land Bureau, Easton & Eldridge, auctioneers, was a marked success. Three carloads of excursionists from this city attended, and the bidding was spirited throughout the sale. About 100 lots were sold for $16,000, the prices ranging from $100 to $300 each.

Kern County With Us.

The Exhibitor thinks that Los Angeles should reach out for the trade of the San Joaquin valley at least as far as Fresno. No doubt it would be advantageous to the counties of Kern, Tulare and Fresno if it did so—if merchants having their business connections there would establish themselves in those counties. Because of opposition transcontinental railroads centering at Los Angeles, goods are cheaper there than at San Francisco.—[Californiaian.]

THE FISHING INDUSTRY.

The Increasing Demand Makes New Grounds Necessary.

Few people have an idea of the extent of the fishing industry of the world, and especially of the Pacific Coast. It is a well known fact that the old fishing beds in the Atlantic do not keep pace with the constant and increasing draw upon them, and a time has come when new waters must be searched to supply the demand. The fishing grounds in the Pacific have not as yet been called upon to furnish its proportion of the fish product of the world, and as it is a large field to work upon, it is no wonder that the attention of those interested should be turned in that direction. A large fleet of vessels leaves California each year, but there is room for many more, and there is no reason why the industry should not become one of the most important of the coast. It only requires enterprise and push. The field is large and only waiting for opening on a large scale. The fishing industry helped greatly to build up Massachusetts and other Eastern Coast States and why not California with its large coast line? It seems strange to wander into the markets in Los Angeles and to see Eastern fish on sale and bringing higher prices than Pacific coast fish. Of course the salmon branch cannot have any competition on the Atlantic side, but it has been demonstrated that the Pacific abounds in codfish equal in quality if not superior to those captured off the coast of Newfoundland. The fishing industry, according to the annual report of the American Fish Bureau at Gloucester, for last year, gives employment to about 700,000 men and about 150,000 vessels. The total amount of the annual product is about 1,500,000 tons, or 3,000,000,000 pounds of fish, equal to 150,000 carloads, which would load a train 9.0 miles long. The United States has 101,684 fishermen and 60,000 vessels of over five tons burthen. The largest fishing port in the world is Grimsby, England, with 768 vessels. France employs 126,000 persons in sea and coast fisheries, and the value of the annual proceeds is $16,660,000. Norway produces for export $11,000,000 and for home consumption about $4,000,000. Italy produces $9,520,000, Russia $16,600,000 and Germany receives $18,326,000 annually in fish, two-thirds of which are exported. In the United States the mackerel fisheries first made a good showing in 1819 when the pack of Massachusetts amounted to 100,111 barrels. In 1831 the largest pack in any one year occurred, when 384,648 barrels were prepared for market. So far the mackerel has not found its way into Pacific waters in any great extent, but it is a migratory fish, for while in one series of years it is found in large quantities in one part of the North Atlantic and its bays, from some unknown cause another year or series of years it is found hundreds of miles away, consequently there is hope of placing it in the Pacific if search is made. The largest and most valuable are the Western Atlantic fishing grounds. These banks extend from Cape Cod to the east coast of Newfoundland and constitute a chain of submerged plateaus. These supply the United States and other nations more or less with fish. As yet the fisheries of the Pacific ocean do not produce enough to make any impression on the market, but the time is coming when the principal supply will be drawn from its waters. The area of the Atlantic bank is 73,123 square miles. Last season was remarkable for the scarcity of nearly all kinds of salt and Pacific species of the country. The markets have shown a scarcity of mackerel, bluefish, herring, albacore, salmon and pilchard. Quotations for all of these have advanced. The Pacific coast world, and in salmon there has been quite a corner in San Francisco. The amount of mackerel taken was the smallest known since 1843, and with three exceptions since 1818. Codfish were fairly plentiful and halibut showed a small increase.

In a Short Time the Pacific Fleet Will Start Out.

It has been already, and the effect of its early fishing has been fully discussed and is generally admitted, yet the dereliction of work as yet previous legislation is not by any means unanimous among those who ought to know all about the matter. Prices during the past twelve months have been more favorable to those engaged in the business than in any previous year, and those who were in favor of close season at that time are not so anxious now. It is hardly possible that legislation will be done toward protecting the sea fish until every possible resource has been taxed to its uttermost to supply the growing demand. The Pacific is almost an unknown ground and has got to be tried in a systematic manner.

Hotel Arcadia Opening Ball.

Scott, of Santa Monica, is a fraud. Of course he has the finest hotel in Southern California, and the opening ball of that hotel last night, or rather this morning, was a most delightful affair, and the numerous guests enjoyed themselves to the full. All the same, Scott is a fraud. He advertised that the train from the ball would arrive at Los Angeles at 1 o'clock this morning. Having confidence in Scott, a young man on costume de rigueur was sent to report the grand ball. Space was reserved for the gilt-edged account, and mental calculations were being made as to how many thousands copies should be printed to supply the enormous young ladies' wardrobe. About midnight there came a gurgling sound over the telephone, in which there was a trace of the voice of the reporter, and a still, small aroma of champagne. There were many indistinct sounds and a few intelligible words as follows: "Train went leave till 2:30. Everybody having such a good time want to stay all night. So do I. Big crowd, fine music, elegant dress." Will save report for Thursday.

Wilkins, General Freight and Passenger Agent, San Diego, Cal.: DEAR SIR—Mr. Goddard advises me that Mr. Chase will arrange immediately for through tourist sleepers between Los Angeles and Kansas City. DOWN AN ELEVATOR SHAFT.

The Colorado Legislature Denounces the Oppression of Britain.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Herald.

ST. LOUIS, March 30.—Hon. Thomas C. Reynolds committed suicide at the Court House this afternoon by plunging down the elevator shaft. He fell a distance of eighty feet, crushing in his skull. The cause of the rash act was mental derangement, superinduced by the hallucination that he was about to become insane. A few minutes before 2 o'clock he entered the building and sauntered into the United States Court room. Several persons met him in the building and he appeared in his usual humor. He was seen to leave the United States Marshal's office, and stepping into the elevator gate passed out of view. A few minutes later he was brought out of the sub-basement dead. In 1869 he was elected Lieutenant-Governor of the State of Missouri on the same ticket, with the famous Governor Caleb Jackson, and in the Civil War sided with the Confederacy. At the close of the war he went to Mexico and became very intimate with Maximilian. In 1893 he returned to St. Louis. He was a member of the commission sent to South America about two years ago, in the interest of commerce with the United States. In 1854 he fought a duel with B. Gratz Brown, with rifles at 300 paces, on the island opposite this city, over a political discussion. Mr. Brown was hit in the knee, but Mr. Reynolds was not touched. It is believed that Governor Reynolds only intended to maim Mr. Brown. Governor Reynolds was married twice, and leaves to his second wife, whom he married three years ago, all his property.

Her Deposition Taken for Future Use.

INTERESTING STATEMENTS.

Miss Baldwin Relates Her Story of Her Wrongs and Sufferings.

The taking of testimony in the case of Baldwin vs. Bell was commenced yesterday before Notary Kohler by the taking of the deposition of Verona Baldwin. E. J. Baldwin was represented by Mr. Van Dyke and was present at the examination. Major Horace Bell was represented by Judge King. After settling preliminaries Mr. Van Dyke objected to the taking of the deposition on the ground that it did not state that the witness resided out of the county and was about to leave. Not waiving the objections the testimony was commenced.

Miss Baldwin said, in reply to questions by Judge King: My full name is Fanny Verona Baldwin. I know E. J. Baldwin have known him since April, 1879. He is my second cousin. I have every reason to believe. Resided at his house in Santa Anita from May to September. Went there in the company of his wife. Was invited there with the understanding that I was to have a school. Remained there until September.

The question as to whether Miss Baldwin knew of any girl being seduced by E. J. Baldwin was objected to by plaintiff's attorney.

Miss Baldwin answered "yes." Continuing, she said: "I didn't know Mr. Baldwin's reputation as a man of lecherous habits before I went there. After I went there people told me that such was his character, but I did not believe it until after his treatment of me. His reputation in that particular was had in Santa Anita, Los Angeles and San Francisco. His reputation as a seducer of females was bad from what people say to me. His reputation as a destroyer of female chastity was bad. He employed his great wealth for the purpose of seducing young girls to better them in a financial manner. And afterward he hires vile men to visit them and destroy their character and swear on the witness stand that they have been intimate with him. I had some trouble in San Francisco with E. J. Baldwin. Have had plenty of trouble ever since I left in 1879. I shot him in the Baldwin Hotel on January 4, 1883. I did not aim at his back. I was arrested by a special policeman. I was not allowed to testify in court. I told the reporters that he had seduced me criminally against my wishes. I also said I would not have shot him if he had let me alone after I left the ranch. I did it without reason. I wish to show that I had reason, and that I was not insane. I know of E. J. Baldwin having criminal intercourse at Santa Anita with others of his kindred.

Cross-examined: I am Baldwin's second cousin. I have been led to believe that I was his second cousin from childhood. My father was Andrew Jackson Baldwin. I don't know what his father's name was. My father was E. J. Baldwin's first cousin. E. J. Baldwin told me he lived in Santa Anita. I know of him having seduced other people. I saw him in intercourse with Mrs. Earl. That is the only case I know of my own knowledge. Mrs. Lawton told me she knew of a case (objected to as being hearsay). Did not try to shoot any more. But E. J. Baldwin in San Francisco. A man attacked me once and I held a revolver in his face to keep him at bay. He was the man who introduced himself as Richard Gardner and told a lady to tell me that he was at the Baldwin Hotel. He wanted me to swear that I had criminal intercourse with him. I concluded that it had been done for the purpose of compromising me. I assaulted no other man. He came to my room and said things I did not like and I held a revolver at him and he went down stairs. If I attempted to throw pepper in a man's face I don't remember. Some people opened letters at Bancroft's address to me when I was carrying E. J. Baldwin's child. A man there opened my letters and took money sent to me out of them. I did not want him to do that. I know of, but I could not do more. I have lost my temper a good many times, but I think some one else is to blame for it.

Re-direct examination—I saw E. J. Baldwin in criminal intercourse with Mrs. Earl. A number of men were on the outside. I heard Mrs. Earl's child on the outside calling mamma and went to the door to see where Mrs. Earl was and opened it and saw them. It occurred at the Baldwin Hotel. I was the only by accident that I went into the room. If I had known he was there I would not have gone in. A Chinaman who was there also saw it and told the men it was a joke.

Re-cross-examination. Sing was the name of the Chinaman. There were three white men. I don't remember their names. I left just as soon after that as I could get my money. I left because I did not want to have anything more to do with Baldwin. Besides, I wanted to go and see Mrs. Baldwin, whom I loved. I left because I did not want to stay. My sister had written telling me that it was not the place for me to stay at.

Recess until 2 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Direct examination on another case in the afternoon elicited the following: "Baldwin's servant had induced me to go to him," said she, and I ordered him out of my night. He said I would treat him as well as I had E. J. He would treat me as he would a queen. From this I judged he thought I was E. J.'s mistress. I judged that he meant that he would not tell on me if I allowed him to use me as his mistress. I ordered him out of the room. The valet then introduced E. J. He had told him I was his (Baldwin's) mistress. Some time afterward I met him in the Carroll and Baldwin coming from Baldwin's bedroom. Baldwin's hotel. It was the 4th of January. I met him two days before in Lloyd's private office.

"I shot Baldwin in the arm January 4th, 1883. I was arrested, but his attorneys and employers tried to prevent him. He told me if I ever tried to kill him he would put me in an insane asylum. I delivered myself up to the officers and was taken to jail.

I acknowledged I was insane from the time I left Santa Anita until I shot Baldwin. This I think was caused by Baldwin's treatment of me. I was prosecuted and discharged on the ground of insanity.

Giles H. Gray was my attorney, associated with him was J. J. McGilvery. Two or three days after I was discharged I was forcibly put into a back and my shoes thrown in after me. That was on Saturday after my discharge and I was put on a steamer bound for Oregon, and Gray told me Baldwin had told him he would place me in an insane asylum. That he would see to it if I went home I would not be placed in an asylum. Witness stated she believed Gray was influenced by Baldwin. This was because he (Gray) came to her in jail and told her that Baldwin didn't want to prosecute her, but that "if I would consent to go to Washington Territory, Baldwin would pay my way and get me out of the jail."

Witness reiterated that Baldwin's reputation was bad. That she shot him because she had brooded over her disgrace until she thought she was insane—she thought she had no future. She shot him because of him wronging her.

Cross-examined by Mr. Wade—Witness said the valet's name was Silas Co. He said he had seen a doctor make a medical examination of witness. She then reiterated that Silas had made improper advances to her.

Mr. Baldwin did not send me away. Baldwin told me he was sorry Silas had acted as he did. I was accompanied by Mr. Judge Wheeler at the time I shot Baldwin. Sweeney, foreman of the Alta-California, had told witness Baldwin's reputation was bad. W. H. Pinkerton had told her at Chicago that Baldwin had some very fine girls at the hotel. Mr. Baldwin told her there, races track. Mr. Baldwin told her there, I was seduced away in Chicago and charged with insanity. Expected to be married at the house where I am. Mrs. Perkins, I think, keeps the house. People told me that E. J. Baldwin would give a good deal of money to put me out of the house where I live. I live in the Johnson mansion. I will not give one name of those who told me. If I were to prosecute those who made statements about me there would be a number of libel suits. Mr. Garvey is the one I met at Mr. Baldwin's table. He lived where he chose to go. Never met him at his rooms in this city. He gave me the key to his office once and told me I could write there. I could be in a room with Mr. Garvey and not be insulted. He's a man. Don't know who else he had in his office. Did not meet him in his room alone. I was in his room alone but did not meet him there. I think his room was in the Baker Block. Don't know that Mr. Garvey had trouble with the agent of that block on account of my meeting him there.

Adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

Extra Liability to Malarial Infection.

Persons whose blood is thin, digestion weak and liver sluggish, are extra liable to the attacks of malarial disease. The most trifling ailment may, under such conditions, infect a system which, if healthy, would resist the malarial taint. The only way to secure immunity from malarial infection is to keep the blood pure and the system healthy by giving a wholesome impetus to biliary secretion. These results are accomplished by nothing so effectively as I know of, E. J. Baldwin having criminal intercourse at Santa Anita with others of his kindred.

A CLEVER CAPTURE.

The Man Who Passed a Confederate Bill Arrested.

It will be remembered that on last Friday evening a young man paid for his dinner at the Quaker restaurant, on Temple street, in this city, with a fifty-dollar Confederate bill, receiving $49.75 lawful money in exchange from the lady in charge of the cashier's desk. After an hour or two she discovered that she had been swindled and at once took the bill to the office of the Chief of Police, and stated the case to that official, who notified all patrolmen of the matter, with instructions to arrest any one answering to the very imperfect description given of the swindler. But it appears the bird had left for parts unknown. At the time the lady presented her case to the Chief, Mr. A. J. Lucas, one of the proprietors of the Pacific Coast Detective Agency, happened to be present, and to him the Chief gave the bill for future use, if need be, by the Bureau. Mr. Lucas at once surmised that the swindler had left the city on the 7:30 evening train for San Francisco, but no one at the depot recognized the description of the departed. Mr. Lucas telegraphed to San Francisco and numerous other places a description of the owner of the bill, and has been rejoiced to hear that one of his men captured him Saturday afternoon in San Francisco as he was landing from the Oakland boat. There was no mistake about the matter and the money was recovered inside of twenty-four hours from the time when it was obtained.

The swindler said his name was C. J. Meyers, age 22 years, and that he had been a vaquero in San Diego county. He said it was a mistake on his part in giving the cashier the bill and that he intended to give her some other money instead. A dispatch was sent her for instructions as to what disposition to make of Meyers, but as he offered to restore the money and the complainant did not wish to go to the trouble and expense of prosecution, he was let go on the payment of the $50.

Mr. Lucas is to be congratulated on his success in the matter. From the very imperfect description of Meyers by the complainant the arresting officer must have had a keen scent for evil-doers.

The Orange Boom.
The special sale of forty-two lots in the C. Z. Culver Home tract at Orange, which was announced to come off yesterday, was an unprecedented success. There was no auction and no special excursion, yet a number of Los Angeles and Eastern people were in attendance, and over $10,000 worth were sold in the first two hours. Nearly the entire tract was closed out last night and prices obtained were higher than have heretofore been obtained in Orange for similar property. In addition to the sales made in the Culver tract, numerous other important transactions in town property were made, and the market is advancing daily.

Several business buildings are now in process of construction and many others are being planned. The new Hotel Palmyra is rapidly being finished and will be opened to the public about May 1st. Ample accommodations of a temporary nature for twenty or thirty persons can be furnished, to those who visit Orange with a view of remaining over, and those who have business here can be well taken care of.

The bank building will be ready for occupancy in about four weeks.

The report that cars will run into Orange within the next thirty days has stimulated all kinds of business and residence property values.

SUDDEN RICHES.

How a Clothes-Dealer Brought Wealth to a Capitalist.

Gabriel Karsky rang the bell. His business was that of a second-hand clothes-dealer, and the bell was that of No. 10 Liberty street, where David Cohen, a capitalist, resided. Karsky called a little stuffy shop at 335 Fifth street, and often, in the pursuit of his calling, he took a turn in the fresh air and gathered up old garments to be furnished up as new. He had just rang the bell at No. 10 Liberty street, and when he did so this rainy afternoon, about a month ago, and Mrs. Cohen came to the door, she said pleasantly: "Nothing to tell to-day, Gabriel."

"I have thought said Karsky, drawing a crumpled paper from his pocket. 'I've got a Louisiana lottery ticket here and that is a coupon of ticket 73,987 and I want to sell it.' Mrs. Cohen, however, would have nothing to do with the coupon, Karsky insisted and the argument went on until Mr. Cohen impatiently shouted from the sitting room to take the coupon, give the man a dollar and let him go. The ticket and Mrs. Cohen's dollar changed places, and Gabriel pocketing the piece went on his way in the quiet contentment of small profits.

On the 18th of February the list of prizes was published in the Chronicle, and Mrs. Cohen, looking over it with mild curiosity, saw with amazement that ticket No. 73,987 had drawn the first capital prize, and that her coupon was worth $15,000. She collected the money through Wells, Fargo & Co's bank, and remembering the circumstances of her purchase, sent Karsky $100.

This was not the only sudden fortune that came to San Francisco from New Orleans last month. Another tenth of the capital prize was drawn here, $2000 came in a lump to an old woman who held a coupon of ticket No. 14,105, and two young men with Murphy, Grant & Co. have become $5000 richer by holding a coupon of ticket 45,151, which drew the second capital prize. (San Francisco Chronicle, March 3.)

A Review of the Day's Transactions.

New York, March 30.—To-day's stock market presented somewhat of a contrast to those of the past few days, the leading shares becoming quiet with narrow fluctuations and the interest in trading was diminished. A few speculations, however, were made, and the market to take care of itself. The peculiar state of the money market being the principal inducement in this course traders and foreigners were free sellers, especially early in the day, but supporting operations held the resulting decline to insignificant fractions only. The unsettled condition of French affairs was the principal factor in selling. All the leading shares were quiet and spiritless. The opening was rather heavy this morning. Most stocks showed small declines from last evening's final figures. The market was active but feverish and unsettled in early trading, though a heavy tone was soon developed in prices, however, was insignificant and toward noon the market became more generally quiet. The close was quiet, generally heavy, and close to opening prices. Government bonds were dull but steady.

THAT ASSAULT.

Justice Austin Refuses to Hold Major Horton Bell.

The case of Major Horton Bell, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon upon General Bouton, came up for examination before Justice Austin yesterday afternoon. Judge Brunson testified that he saw Major Bell on the 7th instant and commenced to talk with him about some legal matters. Witnesses turned and saw General Bouton coming but paid no attention to him and turned around. Heard General Bouton say "I don't want you to mention my name again in that black-mailing sheet." Witness saw General Bouton throw up his arm and Major Bell's cane bent across it, and he bent the outer part of the cane and fell on the ground, disclosing a piece of steel. Some other words occurred and Mr. Rowan came along and took General Bouton by the arm and walked away with him.

General Bouton testified that on the 7th of March he came along Market street to Judge Brunson and Major Bell, who were talking together. Bell was facing him. He told him that he did not want his name mentioned again. Major Bell struck him with his cane and witnesses threw up his arm to ward off the blow. The cane struck his arm and the bamboo fell to the sidewalk, leaving the blade in his hand. Major Bell stepped back a little.

G. Laughlin testified that he never saw the affair and never heard of it. He was accused.

Superior Rowan testified that he saw Major Bell with a sword cane in his hand and the sheath on the ground, and saw it picked up and handed to Major Bell. The sword was thrown back over Major Bell's shoulder.

Mr. Wm. Thorp testified that he saw Major Bell with the sword in his hand and the sheath lying on the pavement. Did not hear the conversation. The prosecution here closed, and the defense moved to dismiss the charge on the ground that the evidence was not sufficient to prove that there was an assault with a deadly weapon. The motion was denied.

The defense introduced testimony showing almost the same facts as were sworn to by the prosecution, with the exception that the sword was not in Major Bell's hand and that the cover of the sword fell to the ground. After it fell off, Major Bell dropped the point of the sword to the ground.

Mr. Van Houson testified that he saw the case raised and the scabbard fall off to the ground.

Mr. Green testified to the same facts, as also did Mr. Boam and Major Bell, who said he had not been on speaking terms with General Bouton. He had been warned a day or two before that General Bouton would insult him, and if he repeated it the General would kill him. General Bouton did insult him, and he hit him with the cane, which he did not know would separate in that manner. General Bouton made an attempt to repeat the insult, and witnesses made no attempt to follow it up. In fact he stepped back two or three steps. The man who had warned him said Bouton and Wells and Thornton intended to insult him and then kill him. Colonel Miller was the man who warned him a day or two previous. He was very nervous about it.

Justice Austin, after hearing a short argument, dismissed the charge.

THE GREATEST STUDY OF Mankind is Man.

And who ever his wondrous frame doth scan, ponder and devise to cure an ill, whether by food, fruit or pill, an equal benefactor is he; for he is the inventor of a Cathartic of delicious taste, to do him honor. Not a case of smallpox and no deaths reported yesterday.

The Lynch-Vanderer contest will be resumed this afternoon.

The examination of Verona Baldwin will be continued this morning.

The Police Commissioners yesterday had under consideration the case of Officer Dan Lynch, but the examination was postponed until to-day.

A Japanese wedding will take place at Armory Hall on Friday evening. It will be given in aid of the Y. W. C. T. U., and will be very interesting.

An old man, whose name was not learned, was yesterday knocked down by a passing team on Spring street, near Sixth street, and had his face severely lacerated.

There are eighty-five entries of horses for the great Kentucky Derby which comes off on May 11th. E. J. Baldwin's Galah is the favorite by long odds and this Pandemonium is second.

Cook & Wiseman, the bookbinders, have been awarded the contract to do all the book work for the University of California, of which Judge R. M. Widney is president.

A malicious individual last night at half-past nine o'clock threw a hard object of some description from across the street into one of the upper windows of the new cigar store under the Odd Fellows Block, shattering the glass. The fellow escaped.

Personal Mention.

Mr. H. W. Griswold, of Sacramento, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Yashel D. A. Valla, of the Camulos ranch, is visiting this city.

Captain A. Campbell, of the ship Audrian, is at the St. Elmo.

Mr. C. H. Morse, of Fairbanks, Morse & Co., Chicago, is at the Raymond with Mrs. Morse.

Lee Gust, of the firm of M. B. Gust & Co., of San Francisco, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday.

Colonel R. W. Burton, of the motor railroad between Colton and San Bernardino, is at the St. Elmo.

Ed L. Maxwell, that prince of good fellows, who leads a quiet and retired life at the city of San Luis Obispo, arrived in Los Angeles yesterday, and will spend a few days here greeting his friends, which their name is legion.

THE SAN JOAQUIN RANCHO.

Its Sale Certainly Consummated on Yesterday.

The great San Joaquin Rancho of 106,000 acres, in the southwest corner of Los Angeles county, was yesterday reported sold by the Trustees, Margaret Irvine, Geo. Irvine, Isaac E. Davis, Jan. W. Byrne, Geo. Moffatt and Edwin Mastick, of the estate of James Irvine, deceased, to James McFadden, for the modest sum of $1,250,000. Another report has the amount paid $1,500,000. The contract is to be executed to-day, when full details will be afforded.

The property embraces the Lomas de Santiago, part of the Santiago de Santa Ana and the princely San Joaquin rancho. A large part of the San Joaquin is tillable land, as is the portion of the Santiago de Santa Ana, while Lomas de Santiago is a favorite land for pasturage. The moist land in the vicinity of the sea is famous for corn and all grain and vegetable crops. The higher mesa can be watered by tunneling into the mountains on the northeast side of the tract. This portion is remarkably adapted to raising culture and all kinds of fruit, while the shore side is famous for alfalfa and stockraising. It is understood that the purchase has been made by either the Southern Pacific or the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway to subdivide into small farms, but the purchaser last night did not choose to say which railroad was the purchaser of this great property. This sale will cause a great movement into that part of Los Angeles county and make room for 10,000 settlers.

Rules of Practice of the U. S. Circuit Court.

The Herald acknowledges the receipt, through the politeness of Wm. M. Vandye, Esq., Clerk of the United States Circuit Court of the Ninth Circuit, Southern District of California, of a copy of the "Rules of Practice of the U. S. Circuit Court for the Ninth Circuit, Southern District of California and Rules of Practice for the Courts of Equity of the United States." The rules embraced in the volume are 94 in number, and are supposed to cover all cases of procedure before the courts of the Ninth District. The following are the officers of the United States Court for the Pacific Coast:

Hon. Stephen J. Field, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court; Hon. Loren Sawyer, Circuit Judge; Hon. E. Line M. Rose, District Judge; Hon. J. Marion Brooks, United States Attorney; William M. Van Dyke, Esq., Clerk; D. R. Risley, Marshal; and Charles L. Maccheller, Standing Master and Examiner in Chancery. The volume contains the time of holding the courts in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Portland, Oregon, and Carson, Nevada, with a list of Motion Days, Rule Days and Law Days. The volume contains 74 pages of important information for lawyers practicing in the United States Court, and is furnished to the profession by the government, through Mr. Van Dyke, for a dollar each. The volume will be a great assistant to lawyers practicing in the United States court.

Ungrateful Wretches.

Yesterday afternoon a couple of men stopped in at the coffee mills, corner of Eighth and Hill streets, and complained of being very tired. The kind-hearted proprietor, Mr. W. Watson, invited them to be seated, and went to the back room to get them some wine. During this absence the wretches seemed to desert the wretches, and one of them seized a bag containing $40, and the two sped on their way at a rate calculated to shame a lightning messenger. Mr. Watson reported his loss at the police office and left a description of the criminals. This case was given to that exceptionally swift officer, Fred Smith, and last evening he arrested a man named David Dillon, who was identified by Mr. Watson as one of the culprits. Officer Smith is close on the track of the other suspected wretch.

MODERN ARCHITECTS.

New Styles of Finish and Interior Decoration.

Styles of architecture are changing continually, and it is a fact that in point of finish and decoration Los Angeles is not so far advanced as are the Eastern cities. In those places the architects keep themselves fully informed of what is going on in the way of improvement in European cities, and to do this it is necessary for each firm to send some one to Europe every year to study style, finish and interior decoration. Then there have been many changes of late in sanitary plumbing, which in all large cities has become the subject of special study. It is true that a partial record of these improvements is furnished by the various magazines and journals, but no adequate idea of them can be obtained without personal investigation. A visitor from California in the Eastern cities is at once struck with the elegant and symmetrical simplicity of architecture, and a surprise is felt that so pleasing an effect is produced by such simple means. Just how this is done is a subject which requires much study and personal investigation, and this has been done by Mr. A. M. Edelman, who has just returned from a prolonged tour of study among the ideas of Eastern members of the same profession. During his trip he visited all the prominent Eastern centers of civilization, and has imbibed much that will be of benefit to those who desire to build in this city. He has made a special study of interior decoration, sanitary plumbing, and is prepared to furnish designs of the latest modern style. His offices are at No. 17 North Main street, rooms 22 and 23.

CRIMINALITIES.

Record of Matters Interesting to the Police.

R. Setz, who tried to sell a Wells-Fargo order has been admitted to bail in $200 and will be examined to-day before Justice Austin.

The criminal libel charge of Messrs. Thornton, Stephens and Wells comes up before Justice Toney this morning at 10 o'clock.

W. Watson, of the coffee mills, reported yesterday that he had been robbed of $40 or $50 by two men. One of the men entered the store and occupied his time and attention while the other went into the back room and took the money. The police are looking for the men of whom they have a description.

A Card From Mr. Wallace.

EDITOR HERALD.—The reports that have been going the rounds of the press in this county, with regard to smallpox at my house, are both misrepresentations. While I have a light case of varioloid in my family, I have taken every precaution against spreading the disease, acting strictly under the instructions of Health Officer Dr. McAllister, of Pasadena. I have never refused to be quarantined, neither have I violated any of the rules or instructions given me by Dr. McAllister, to whom I refer as to the truthfulness of this statement? No one leaving my place, except an attendant provided by the Health Officer for the purpose of doing the house family supplies. Just why some malicious persons should take it upon themselves to report such base fabrications, and thereby create an unwarranted furor in a neighborhood, is beyond my power of comprehension. My little boy is about well. Respectfully,
J. C. WALLACE.

BRONCHITIS.

Acute Bronchitis.

This is an inflammation of the mucous membrane lining the bronchial tubes, and is one of the most common of all the pulmonary diseases. It is a dangerous disease, as it prevents the oxygenation of the blood,
and in many cases, particularly after it passes into the chronic stage, the substance of the lungs becomes seriously involved, giving rise to what is very properly called Bronchial Consumption. In the acute form there is a sense of tightness or pressure across the chest, with considerable wheezing, severe cough and expectoration. This is at first a white glairy mucus, which after a time becomes purulent. The patient in some cases is obliged to sit up in bed, the oppression across the chest is so great, the skin is clammy and prostration rapidly sets in, and in fatal cases there will be muttering delirium, coma and death.

Chronic Bronchitis.

Chronic Bronchitis is also an inflammation of the mucous membrane of bronchial tubes. But this form more often occurs later in life. When a cold settles on the lungs the disease either ends in bronchitis or pneumonia. If it ends in bronchitis, it usually passes off as a cold in the chest, and the patient does not feel entirely well. He feels tired and languid, and is incapable of taking his usual amount of exercise, and experiences a shortness of breath with more or less warmth in the palms of his hands. Soon after this a cough appears, accompanied by an expectoration of thick mucus, followed by a hectic flush, loss of sleep and strength, and night sweats continue, when the patient assumes all the appearance of having a genuine case of consumption. The disease is at first very incurable, and ends in a fatal catarrh of the lungs, or chronic bronchitis.

In the latter stages of the disease the mucous membrane of the larger bronchial tubes softens, while the smaller tubes and air cells of the lungs the mucous membrane becomes congested, and is liable to become more or less tubercular in the lungs, but morely a wasting away of the larger bronchial tubes, and the result is a fatal result of the disease. The patient dies from exhaustion and an accumulation of mucus in the passage leading to the lungs, which in some cases is sticky and sun-dried, but more commonly greenish, and a light straw or yellowish green. Oftentimes streaks of blood make the appearance in the mucus, and at times there is a disagreeable, bloody, frothy and is of unconmonly the case that the patient dies in one of these attacks.

Humid bronchitis (from humors, to be noted) is so called from the profuse quantity of watery secretions which comes from the air passages of the lungs. At times it becomes quiteropy like the white of an egg. This form of disease usually attacks old people.

Dry bronchitis. This disease, the very opposite of the above, is a very common affection. Very many people who regard themselves as quite healthy and are today under its influence, and are slowly but surely becoming the victims of this treacherous pulmonary disease. There may at first be a slight hacking cough, and an expectora-tion of a bluish white mucus. And herein lies the danger. This mucus inhibiting the air cells of the lungs, being difficult to raise, after it becomes solidified, permanently obstructing portions of the lungs,
causing shortness of breath, and a feeling
of oppression on the chest, particularly after meals or a slight exertion. After a time the cough becomes more severe and comes on in paroxysms, and as the shortness of breath increases, it is accompanied by a character of the lungs, being difficult to raise, after it becomes solidified, permanently obstructing portions of the lungs,
causing shortness of breath, and a feeling
of oppression on the chest, particularly after meals or a slight exertion. After a time
